A few other things that kill a relationship and totally piss you off is when your partner is always on the computer looking at porno or talking to other woman on webcam then hurrying to turn off the computer or switch to another site when you walk in the room also when they are quick to answer their mobile phone and tell you it was the wrong number or not tell you who it was.

Hello! my dear! / I am a pretty girl from Russia and very much want to meet you. / I am very optimistic but within reasonable limits. But still there is a lack of one person in my fate. / That is why I'm here. I am waiting for my only man to come to my life. Doors to my soul are open for him. / Look at my pictures: <http://lavdate.ru/?vu> I will be waiting for you.

And you can do it to your conscience
You can do it all the time
You can do it with a vengeance
In the morning after nine

But you know
You'll always be waiting
Always be waiting
For someone else to call

The usual diversion tactic, the only problem are the touts. What about the false companies set up by the likes of Seb Coe and Jonathon Edwards? Six figure cheques written out for the usual st, `consultancy fees`. What does someone who spent a good part of his adult life playing in a sand pit know about `business`. F all but he knows how to bank those cheques payed to companies with no employees, no premises and that exist only as an address (off the UK mainland).The tax pot has been opened and while all those bent bds help themselves to it, they feed the line about touts. And where do the touts get the tickets? From the sponsors who are allocated blocks of thousands of tickets that they are not remotely interested in taking up and sell to the touts. We all know that the touts are second in the chain.

You are The Leader, Your spirit guide is The Bear. As a leader you hold a lot of power, it is only natural to have an animal known for it's strength to guide you. There are many people out there who are lost and confused, whether you know it or not you have the ability to lead those who need to be lead. You are honest and full of the future. There are so many wonderful things you can do in your life. Open your eyes and keep your face forward. With your talents, there is little you can't do. You can accomplish more if you look at things in an objective and diplomatic way. Don't be fooled though. You are very capable of diving into the depths of nothing if you aren't careful. A leader needs purpose, and direction. The Bear will help you find your direction. Be full of purpose but don't be afraid to let chance and whimsy into your life. Ride the winds, but direct them with your reigns if they start flowing in a direction you do not approve of. You have the power to do so, so use that power. Like the bear you may need to take a break every once and a while. When things get to hectic and confusing, don't be afraid to hibernate for a while. Even the greatest of leaders have needed to rest.

Then he told me that hes busy feeding his polar bear milk. This ladies and gentlemen proves my theory that animus lives in the north west of canada on an island actually closer to greenland than civilised canada, with his mother and his milk sucking polar bear. I dont really want to know what animus does with his polar bear in the evenings but im sure its disgusting. Beware of animus he will set his milk sucking polar bear on you who will feed on your nipples.

Steven Fowl offers a keen observation on the impact of the agenda driven approach to the text. "Much modern scholarly biblical criticism operates on the assumption that there is something hidden by or hidden inside the text. Moreover, the corollary of this assumption is that the properly trained critic is just the right person both to determine what this subject matter is and how to extract it from the text.

A pet snake got itself in a bit of a bind after it mistook its own tail for a tasty dinner. Reggie the King snake soon realised his mistake after chomping down on his back end but then couldn't release himself after his teeth had taken hold.

#52

Well I moved him out of the 3xtank into his own away from the rest of the bettas..... he got really agitated and then he proceeded to totally shred his tail! I added the salt thinking it could help with his stress.....

I left him over night, hoping he would calm down given some time. This morning he was still overly agitated and had started biting his own anal fin.
